Interactive Production Allocation Exhibit Implementation Course: February 10, 2011

PASC and partners PJVA and CAPP will offer a hands-on introduction to Production Allocation Exhibit Implementation. The recently refreshed curriculum uses realistic examples and interactive course materials to bring the curriculum to life. The one-day course covers the allocation exhibit requirements that will accommodate common allocation issues over the life of a facility.

Course sizes are kept small to insure plenty of interaction, so only 16 spots are available. The course tends to sell out quickly, so we encourage you to register online to avoid disappointment.

COPAS 2011 Spring Conference: April 25 to 29, 2011

If you're interested in connecting with petroleum accountants from across North America, consider attending COPAS' upcoming conference in Woodlands, Texas. This informative conference will also include ample opportunities to relax and unwind. Activities include a wine tasting, a Tex Mex cooking demonstration and a fun-filled 'Night at the Museum' themed 50th Anniversary party.
